Federal Student Loan Debt
Most recent three year cohort default rate, as reported by the United States Department of Education <sup>1</sup>	The percentage of enrolled students in 2017 receiving federal student loans to pay for this program.	The average amount of federal student loan debt of 2017 graduates who took out federal student loans at this institution.	The percentage of graduates in 2017 who took out federal student loans to pay for this program.
<sup>1</sup> The percentage of students who defaulted on their federal student loans is called the Cohort Default Rate (CDR). It shows the percentage of this school's students who were more than 270 days (9 months) behind on their federal student loans within three years of when the first payment was due. This is the most recent CDR reported by the U.S. Department of Education.
Students at California International Business University are not eligible for federal student loans. This institution does not meet the U.S. Department of Education criteria that would allow its students to participate in federal student aid programs.

“Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
“Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
“Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
“Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
“First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
“Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
“Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
“Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
“No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.
“Graduates unavailable for employment” means graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education at an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution. Many of our students are international students.”

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

- Cancellation disclosure from Enrollment Agreement shall be provided on a separate document in 12point type and 1.15 spacing.
  - Caption shall state "STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL" in bolded 14 point type

Institution's Cancellation Disclosure from the Enrollment Agreement

A student may cancel his/her enrollment agreement in writing, including but not limited to fax, e- mail, and letter. If a student cancels in writing via letter, they should send the notice to the following address: California International Business University 550 West B Street, San Diego, CA 92101. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by letter, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with proper prepaid postage.

The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by this Agreement. It is the policy of CIBU to receive notice of cancellation in writing. However, CIBU may effectuate withdrawal because of the student's conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student's lack of attendance.

Refunds will be paid within 30-days of cancellation.
